

I am absolutely opposed to allowing cell phone use aboard commercial jets. People cannot be trapped for hours near someone who is virtually yelling into a cell phone (to be heard above the significant background noise of jet engines). Chaos would ensue.